

WILLIAM OTTERBEIN KROHN

A. B., 1887, Western Coll. (now Leander Clark Coll.), Toledo, Ia.; A. M., Ph. D., 1889, Yale Univ.; M. D., 1905, Northwestern Univ.; b. Mar. 23, 1868, Galion, O.; s. Benjamin Franklin (b. near York, Pa.) & Barbara Ann (Smith) Krohn (b. near Galion, O.) Prepared in Galion H. S., O. Alpha Kappa Kappa. Sr. Fellowship, Clark Univ., 1892. Head of Dept., Phil., Psych., and Ethics, Adelbert Coll. and Cleveland Coll. for Women of Western Reserve Univ., 1889-91; Asst. Prof. of Psych. and Ped., Univ. of Ill., 1892-3; Asst. Prof. of Psych., 1893-7; Psychologist, Eastern Hospital for Insane, Kankakee, 1897-9; lecturer and author, Chicago, 1899-1905. Founder of Ill. Soc. for Child Study, Univ. of Ill., 1895; of The Child Study Monthly; The Psychiater. Inventor of special research apparatus for Lab. of Psych. and examination of insane. Author: Practical Lessons in Psychology, 420 pp., Werner Co., 1893; Graded Lessons in Hygiene, William O. Krohn & Co., now pub. by D. Appleton & Co., 294 pp.; First Book in Hygiene, 144 pp., do.; also a large number of articles. Married Emma Beardshear, Aug. 26, 1887, Dayton, O. (d. Jan. 6, 1890, Cleveland, O.); Hattie Weaver, Sept. 7, 1892, New London, Conn. Children, Gretchen, b. July 24, 1888; Stuart Beardshear, b. Oct. 22, 1889. Address, 6332 Lexington Ave., Chicago, Ill.(†)