

C O P Y

12/12/11
Chicago, Ills. 3/12/1911.

Hon. Judge Walter Bordwell

Sir I reade in the papers that you are the Judge that will pass sentence on my two sons J. J. McNamara and J. B. McNamara and sir like by inspiration It flashed Into my soul to droppe you a few lines. I will do the Little I can do And leve the rest to God and you. The law must take It course and Justice Here and Hereafter is Required Your Honor Webster was once asked the Greatest thought he ever had his answer was his personal responsibility to God But God in His Wisdom left a means and Way of Repentence and I hope my sons will aply It and find favour With God and Peace with all men and say with me God Bless this grand and glours American nation.

The grandes part of Gods creation.

May his name for ever rain.

Then our nation will be blessed.

And the poor will not be oppressed.

Then Mammon and our earthly belongings And the poor the will be Equal.

And Gods holy prases the will sing.

In time of Ware the stars and stripes Will fete on High.

And every man will fight for victory Untill he die

For this grand and glours nation.

The grandes part of Gods creation.

Your Honer It is with tears in my eyes wrightin this few lines Just think I need their Help at present for I have nether Work or Money the Have been good Boyes and good to When I was short. Your Honer I was up north Chebogan Mich Planting fruit orchard and never seen any newspapers untill a few dayes ago and then I seen It was my sons. May God Help them Both. May God Enlighten your Soul Judge to be as lenent with them as possible I am very thankful to all the Enlightened mind that helped to bring the trile to a end We are true age of Truble and agitation and unrest. the Propheys of Daniel is working all over the world The is Faith.Hope. and charity. But God in his Wisdom seen charity is the greates of all We Have good people but big part back this great futue. Henc the Trubble and strife.

We did not bring anything into the world and we can not take any thing out the is plenty for every one and every one should be Happy for the Lord said Peace on Earth to Men of good will

I Remain your Humble servant,

(Signed) John. A. McNamara

Chicago
DEC 1911
Judge Walter Bordwell
Los Angeles
Cal

Waldo
Judge wants 2 copies of the letter - for file

Chicago Ills 3/12/1911

Hon Judge Walter Bordwell

Sir I read in the papers that you are the Judge that will pass sentence on my two sons J. J. McNamara and J. B. McNamara and sir like by inspiration it flashed in to my soul to drop you a few lines. I will do the little I can do and leave the rest to God and you. The law must take its course and Justice here and here after is required your Honor Webster was once asked the question - thought he never had. His answer was his personal responsibility to God But God in His Wisdom left a means and way of repentance. and I hope my sons will apply it and find favour with God and perch with all men and say with me God Bless this grand and glorious American Nation

The grandest part of Gods Creation
May his name for ever remain
Then our Nation will be blessed
And the poor will not be oppressed
Then Mammon and our earthly Peccays
And the poor the will be Equal And gods holy praises the will sing
In time of War the stars and stripes Will float on high
And every man will fight for victory
Untill he die
For this grand and glorious nation
The grandest part of Gods Creation

now Home It is with tears in my eyes I write these few lines just to let you know at present for I have rather work or money we have been good boys and good When I was short you Home I was up with cheboran Mick. Planting fruit Orchard and I was seen again until a few days ago and then I saw I was my son. May God bless the may God enlighten your soul to be a much better man a I am very thankful for all the sands that helped to bring a end

and I am sure I am in your hands
God in his mercy Gives us all the things we need in a part of the world trouble and strife we did not bring any thing into the world and we can not take any thing out there is plenty for every one and every one should be happy for the said Peace on Earth to men of good will

I remain your humble servant
John A. McNamee