

WHEATON ANDREW GRAY.

Residence, 1616 West Twenty-fifth street; office, 700 Equitable Savings Bank building. Born October 10, 1853, in Filmore county, Minn., son of Andrew Wheaton and Maranda (Purdy) Gray. Married January 12, 1882, to Marietta Rice. Received his early education in the common schools, and attended Iowa College, Grinnell, Iowa, 1870-73; moved to California, December, 1873; returned to Harvard University Law School, 1877-78. Admitted to practice in District Court, Tulare county, 1879, and to Supreme Court, January, 1882; practiced in Tulare county until 1891, when he was appointed by Gov. Markham to the Superior Court of Tulare county; elected to same office, 1892, and held office until 1899; appointed Commissioner of Supreme Court 1899, and held same until 1905, when he became presiding Justice of the District Court of Appeals of the Second District of California; term expired January, 1907; now engaged in the practice of law in Los Angeles as a member of the firm of Gray, Barker & Bowen. Member of California and Union League Clubs of Los Angeles, and Union League Club of San Francisco. Republican.